

Reproductive Health, Sex Education, and the Safety of Women with Disabilities in Romania

57.7% (105) report that they have been injured, threatened, or humiliated because of their disability.

1 in 5 women surveyed was touched without her consent or was forced to do something against her will.

More than 49% (90) say that the gynecologists' offices they have visited are inaccessible or difficult to access, while 16.9% (31) have never had a gynecological exam.

More than 46% (85) said they had not received sex education tailored to their needs, while 13.7% (25) did not know what tailored sex education meant.

50% (91) of the female respondents said they felt judged when it came to relationships or sexuality.